

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

COUNTRY "SINGING HORSE" STEVENS,)

3:09-CV-227-RCJ(RAM)

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

HOWARD SKOLNIK, et al.,

Defendants.

Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge (#60) ("Recommendation") entered on May 19, 2010. This action was referred to U.S. Magistrate Robert A. McQuaid, Jr., pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and LR IB 1-4. After a thorough review, the Magistrate Judge recommends that this Court enter an order granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss (#26). On July 8, 2010, Plaintiff has filed a Non-opposition to Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation (#64).

I. Discussion

This Court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Further, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), if a party makes a timely objection to the magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court is required to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the [report and recommendation] to which objection is made."¹ Nevertheless, the statute does not

¹ For an objection to be timely, a party must serve and file it within 10 days after being served with the magistrate judge's report and recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C).

1 "require[] some lesser review by [this Court] when no objections are filed." Thomas v. Arn,
 2 474 U.S. 140, 149–50 (1985). Instead, under the statute, this Court is not required to conduct
 3 "any review at all . . . of any issue that is not the subject of an objection." Id. at 149. Similarly,
 4 the Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to review a magistrate
 5 judge's report and recommendation where no objections have been filed. See United States
 6 v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard of review employed
 7 by the district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to which no objections were 8 made); see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d 1219, 1226 (D. Ariz. 2003) (reading
 9 the Ninth Circuit's decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the view that district courts are not 10 required to review "any issue that is not the subject of an objection."). Thus, if there is no
 11 objection to a magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court may accept the 12 recommendation without review. See e.g., Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d at 1226 (accepting, 13 without review, a magistrate judge's recommendation to which no objection was filed).

14 In this case, plaintiff has filed a non-opposition to the Magistrate Judge's Report and 15 Recommendation. Although no objection was filed, this Court has reviewed the Report and 16 Recommendation (#60), and accepts it. Accordingly,

17 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendants' Motion to Dismiss (#26) is GRANTED.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff's claims arising prior to April 29, 2007 are 19 DISMISSED with prejudice.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff's claims brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 994
 21 are DISMISSED with prejudice.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.

23 DATED: This 3 day of August, 2010.
